PART 1 — PROGRAM OVERVIEW

About the Future Leaders Program

The IREM Dallas Chapter Future Leaders Program is designed to identify, develop, and empower the next generation of commercial real estate professionals in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Selected participants will gain access to exclusive networking, mentorship, education, and leadership development opportunities within the IREM community.

What Participants Receive

- Priority access to IREM Dallas chapter events, roundtables, and networking receptions
- Mentorship pairing with an experienced IREM member or CPM designee
- Opportunities to serve on IREM Dallas committees and leadership teams
- Recognition at chapter events and in chapter communications
- Professional development sessions focused on CRE skills and career growth
- Access to a peer cohort network of fellow rising professionals

PART 2 — ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To be considered for the Future Leaders Program, applicants must meet ALL of the following criteria at the time of application:

- ☐ Active IREM member in good standing (individual or through an IREM member organization)
- ☐ Currently employed in commercial real estate or a directly related field
- ☐ Based in or primarily working in the Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area
- ☐ Committed to participating in program activities for the full cohort term

Note: Membership must be current and in good standing. If your membership has lapsed, please renew before submitting your application.
